CONFERENCE KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

ERIC MASON

Dr. Eric Mason is the co-founder and Lead Pastor of Epiphany Fellowship, a multi-ethnic church in Philadelphia PA. He is known for articulating and proclaiming the gospel with clarity, passion, and authority at churches and conferences nationally.

In addition to his role at Epiphany Fellowship, Eric serves as the president of Thriving, a ministry dedicated to aiding ethnic minorities to be resourced and trained for ministry to the urban context.

He serves on the boards of the Acts 29 Network and Reach Life Ministries. He is the author of Manhood Restored: How the Gospel Makes Men Whole; Unleashed: Being Conformed to the Image of Christ; and Beat God to the Punch: Because Jesus Demands Your Life.

He holds degrees from Dallas Theological Seminary (ThM) and Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary (DMin). Dr. Mason attended Bowie State University where he received a BS in Psychology. While at Bowie State University, he was burdened after trusting Christ to go into full-time vocational ministry. While at BSU he acknowledged his calling under the leadership of Rev. Dr. James J. McCord at First Baptist Church of Highland Park in Landover MD. He and his wife Yvette have three children Immanuel, Nehemiah, and Ephraim.

RUSSELL MOORE

Russell Moore serves as the president of the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission (ERLC), which is dedicated to engaging the culture with the gospel of Jesus Christ and speaking to issues in the public square for the protection of religious liberty and human flourishing.

Prior to heading up ERLC in 2013, Moore served as provost and dean of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville KY, where he also taught as professor of theology and ethics.

Dr. Moore is widely regarded as one of the country's most influential cultural commentators. He has been recognized by a number of influential organizations, such as The Wall Street Journal which has called him "vigorous, cheerful, and fiercely articulate". The Gospel Coalition has referred to him "one of the most astute ethicists in contemporary evangelicalism."

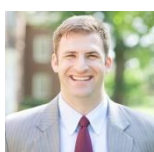

An ethicist and theologian by background, Dr. Moore is also an ordained Southern Baptist minister and the author of several books including Onward: Engaging the Culture Without Losing the Gospel (WACMM'S 2015 Book-of-the-Year). He blogs frequently at his website, russellmoore.com, and hosts a program called Questions & Ethics—a wide-ranging podcast addressing listener-generated questions on the difficult moral and ethical issues of the day. A native Mississippian, he and his wife Maria are the parents of five sons.

Mason and Moore will be interviewed on stage and take questions from audience. The Conference will also include eight breakout session speakers (see below), a panel discussion, worship led by the Iron Men Praise Band, and lots of giveaways and drawings. The conference begins at 8:30am and ends at 3:00pm. Early bird discounts are available. Young men, active duty military, fathers and sons, pastors and disabled veterans receive special registration discounts.
